

HOLLOWEEN

DANIEL TURNPIKE

Felix Featherstone has to leave the classroom a lot. He has anger issues. But wouldn't you if you spent your whole life being made to feel that everything was your fault – including the death of your mother?

He is also a Sagacitor.

In other words, he has lived on this planet many times before. Not that he knows it.

Not until he receives a note in his exercise book, that is, inviting him to travel to Old Souls' Land.

Daniel Turnpike (otherwise known as Robert Goodale) will be visiting Bracken Leas Primary School on Tuesday 29th September to carry out some workshops based on his book 'Halloween'.

The cost of purchasing a personalised, signed copy will be £5.00 (on the day) or £4.00 (if ordered in advance).
